My name is Evi Karota-Bukit. I am a lecturer at Nursing School of Sumatra Utara University, Medan. Now, I am a second year Master student of Nursing Science in Adult Nursing Program at Prince of Songkla University, Thailand. I would like to explain to you, in order to see if you would be willing to participate in the project. I am conducting a nursing research project to investigate the sleep quality and factors interfering with sleep among hospitalized elderly patients. This study will bring no harm to you or your family. If you agree to participate, you will be interviewed to complete these questionnaires.

The procedures for this study are as follows: I will ask some questions about your demographic characteristics and you will be interviewed about your sleep quality, and factors interfering with sleep during your stay in this hospital. I will read each question slowly. Please listen carefully and give your answer according to your real situation.

Please do not hesitate to stop me if you have difficulty in understanding each item. It will depend on you whether you participate or not. Your refusal will not have any afect on the treatment or nursing care for you.
