

APPENDIX D

Table 1 Number and percent of health belief concerning cervical cancer; perceived threat, perceived benefit, and perceived barrier of Pap smear test, by each items
(N=100)

Items	Strongly Agree (n)	Agree (n)	Not Sure (n)	Disagree (n)	Strongly Disagree (n)
Perceived threat of cervical cancer
1. Having cervical cancer would affect the relationship with her spouse	26	52	14	6	2
2. Cervical cancer is a disease that makes patients suffer	22	56	13	7	2
3. Women with cervical cancer can not take care of their family	22	42	21	11	4
4. Having cervical cancer would affect m y work	14	51	17	16	2
5. Women with cervical cancer will die early	17	43	22	13	5
6. Cervical cancer is a severe and fearful disease	14	43	24	16	3

Table 1 (Continued)

Items	Strongly Agree (n)	Agree (n)	Not Sure (n)	Disagree (n)	Strongly Disagree (n)
Perceived threat of cervical cancer
7. Having a husband with multiple sexual partners places me at high risk of developing cervical cancer	14	35	27	12	12
8. Having a husband who underwent circumcision prevent me from getting cervical cancer	8	18	41	16	17
9. As I get older, I have more chance of getting cervical	5	27	17	32	19
10. Having first intercourse at a young age increases the chance of having cervical cancer	4	25	28	29	14

Table 1 (Continued)

Items	Strongly Agree (n)	Agree (n)	Not Sure (n)	Disagree (n)	Strongly Disagree (n)
11. Becoming pregnant at an early age increases the chances of having cervical cancer	7	19	28	29	17
12. When I hear friends or relatives have cervical cancer, it, makes me think that I have a chance to get it	4	21	26	27	22
13. High parity increase my chances to get cervical cancer	2	20	26	34	18
14. I think, I have a great chance to get cervical cancer	4	7	27	29	33

Table 1 (Continued)

Items	Strongly Agree (n)	Agree (n)	Not Sure (n)	Disagree (n)	Strongly Disagree (n)
Perceived benefits of Pap smear test
15. Pap smear test is an effective method to detect cervical cancer	37	48	10	4	1
16. Having a Pap smear test is good for me	36	48	8	5	3
17. Having Pap smear test helps to detect cervical cancer at an early stage and can be treated promptly	35	48	10	4	3
18. Having a regular check-up with Pap smear test can prevent invasive cervical cancer	31	49	14	4	2

Table 1 (Continued)

Items	Strongly Agree (n)	Agree (n)	Not Sure (n)	Disagree (n)	Strongly Disagree (n)
19. Having a Pap smear test helps me to know whether I have cervical cancer.	28	38	21	9	4
Perceived barriers of Pap smear test
20. Receiving a Pap smear test would be painful	9	25	20	29	17
21. I believe cervical cancer can not be prevent because it depends on God	7	28	16	28	21
22. I am afraid to know the results of the test	4	26	20	29	21
23. I am afraid to have a Pap smear test by a male doctor	11	18	15	31	25

Table 1 (Continued)

Items	Strongly Agree (n)	Agree (n)	Not Sure (n)	Disagree (n)	Strongly Disagree (n)
24. I feel embarrassment to have a Pap smear test	11	16	13	35	25
25. Receiving a Pap smear test can affect my work	6	16	14	31	33
26. I had a problem financing a Pap smear test	11	11	10	34	34
27. I am afraid that the place for having a Pap smear test are not private	11	11	10	34	34
28. I have no time to have a Pap smear test	8	13	10	38	31